kaos & order

in chile picanas were used to wash clean the body of the nation while inserting it in the mouth vagina & anus or pressing it against the tits all kind of red bacteria agents of kaos were picaneados with these sexy toys sending electric signals right through the waterholes of their b o

d y

a post-modern ku klux klan inquisition commanding from under their pointed white sanbenito
  hoods submission to their objective sellable compulsory truth today wednesday the 24th of june 2015 while i drink a café & listen to poetry someone is being made red bacterial agent proof in a no-place somewhere picanas are called teasers a trendy name catchy indeed for a psychedelic

  shot right to the heart of the problem to wash clean the red body of the planet & loving it!

on highlighting & obscuring

“charles sturt
-1795 – 1869-
soldier & explorer first to chart the river murray” so the plaque on the ground in front of the university says does this mean that the Ngarrindjeri

-the people that belong to this land-didn’t name their country as they travelled through it or that they did not map it out when dancing it to life?

so we highlight what we see only what we see while shadows vanish all other moons & suns no plaque on the ground we step on everyday this absence leaves no memory nor curiosity a thousand designations they gave to its flow each community sang its own name so the life grounding them grew in words & knowledge & tongues murrundi echuca millewa indi they called this energy of life moving through their countries so the river maps itself in the tongues singing its way to the sea
